PROFILE SUMMARY

As a recent graduate and aspiring Full Stack Developer, I'm passionate about turning ideas into working products. I'm looking to join a company where I can learn something new every day, collaborate with a supportive team, and contribute even in small ways as I grow. I'd love to be part of an environment that encourages learning, values ideas, and gives space for people like me to apply and improve their skills through real projects.

EXPERIENCE

MERN Stack Developer Intern

Jan 2025 - Mar 2025

I did my internship at App Innovation Technologies, where I worked on a live project that included features like add-to-cart and order flow. It was a great learning experience, I got to explore things I hadn't worked on before and understand how real-world development happens in a team environment.
